

Three graduates are clued without definition

ACROSS

- 1 Works up outlines partly recalled in published work (4)
- 4 Chest of drawers, rich, of fine working (10)
- 9 Woman's rage about more gin being spilled (8,7)
- 10 Unexpectedly sharing oil between two countries (5-5)
- 12 Man, evil, heartless? (4)
- 13 King? That is very often seen with 'chicken' in cooking? (4)
- 15 No specialist information? Time to itemise (10)
- 17 One lawyer's crooked (3,7)
- 19 Hydrogen, following its usual form, makes for opening (4)
- 20 Creamy preparation with joint (4)
- 22 Considerate traveller to historic city following company into ruined site (10)
- 24 Most of mail in interim will be describing interchange (15)
- 26 Certainly hurry to consume whiskey in days gone by (10)
- 27 Cup game? Run for seats in stadium (4)

DOWN

- 2 Praise writer about article in two places (5)
- 3 Wimp loves wriggling out of religious commitment? (6,3)
- 4 Failing to block recording at expiry of loose deadline (7,4)
- 5 I stop suppressing rising passion from part of Europe (7)
- 6 Supporting lifting of first of restrictions (3)
- 7 Contribution from Beethoven in the Choral? (5)
- 8 Still tucking into other special snack (9)
- 11 Hound beginning to pursue river creature (5,6)
- 14 Old train – one runs on Tube? That's about right (4,5)
- 16 Convict, released after little hesitation, heading for local boozier (5,4)
- 18 Quick inspection, satisfactory when entering to drop tab? (4-3)
- 21 Contributor to some wines and to some whisky, perhaps, on reflection? (5)
- 23 They match small English village in Suffolk (5)
- 25 2 – 1? It's most often between 3 and 5 (3)